the alleged offences under Sections 191(2) of BNS r/w. Section 3 of Tamil Nadu Public Property (Prevention of Damage and Loss) Act, 1992, in Crime No.152 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a previous enmity between the parties and on 07.11.2024, the accused persons came to the house of the defacto complainant and developed a wordy quarrel and abused and threatened the defacto complainant and caused damage to the car of the defacto complainant. There are totally 6 named accused persons and others and the petitioners have been arrayed as A4 and A6

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the manner in which the entire incident had taken place between the parties and there is a case and counter case which is under investigation in Crime Nos. 151 and 152 of 2024 before the respondent police and there are no previous cases against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which
