Crime No.475 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons received a total sum of Rs.5 lakhs from the defacto complainant with a promise that the first accused will sell the Innova car to the defacto complainant. After receiving the amount, the car was not sold to the defacto complainant.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent Police.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the transaction between the parties and also taking into account the fact that the Accused Nos.2 and 3 were already granted anticipatory bail by this Court and the entire case is borne out by records, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the
