2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons had illegally transported 3 units of river sand in lorry. There are totally 3 accused persons and the petitioner has been arrayed as A1 in this case.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Saide), on instructions, submitted that the vehicle has been seized from the petitioner and the sand has also been seized by the respondent Police. He further submitted that three previous cases are pending against the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also of the fact that the vehicle and the sand have already been seized by the respondent Police and also considering the quantity of minerals involved and the fact that A2 and A3 have already been enlarged on bail by this Court in Crl.O.P(MD) No.16056 of 2024, dated 24.09.2024, this court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions:

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which
