The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS and Section 4 of TNPHW Act, in Crime No.621 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 26.10.2024, the accused persons, under the influence of alcohol, were hearing a song and were dancing in front of the defacto complainant's house. When the same was questioned, they are said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked her and caused her injuries. The defacto complainant's brother was also attacked with iron rod.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the manner in which this incident had taken place and also taking into account the age of the petitioner and also considering the fact that the injured has already been discharged from hospital and it seems that the accused person have also given a complaint against the defacto complainant, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Radhapuram, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall appear before the respondent police as and when required.
