The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS, in Crime No.173 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. There was a previous dispute between the parties and on the date of occurrence, the accused persons are said to have picked up a quarrel with the defacto complainant and attacked him. A1 is the son, A2 is the mother and A3 is the father.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the previous dispute between the parties and considering the fact that there is a case and counter case registered in Crime Nos.173 and 174 of 2024 which is pending investigation before the respondent police and considering the fact that the injured has already been discharged and there are no previous cases against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court,
