The petitioner / Accused No.2, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the offence under Sections 296(b), 118(1), 351(3) of the BNS, 2023 in Crime No.302 of 2024, on the file of the respondent Police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a land dispute between the parties and on the date of occurrence, there was a wordy quarrel in a morning. At that point of time, six accused persons are said to have attacked the defacto complainant and two others with aruval, iron rod and caused serious injuries to them. There are totally three accused persons in this case and the petitioner has been arrayed as Accused No.2.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent Police.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the manner in which this incident had taken place due to land dispute and also taking note of the fact that the injured has been discharged from the hospital and considering the fact that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner subject to the following conditions.
