For Respondent-1 : Mr.P.Subbaraj
Special Government Pleader

ORDER

The case of the petitioner is that he had carried on certain works in respect of the third respondent-temple and had not received the payment till date and therefore, he had made a representation.

2. However, the learned Special Government Pleader appearing on behalf of the first respondent, on instructions, had produced a letter addressed by the Executive Officer of the temple to the petitioner indicating that the work would only be carried out after the approval from the Joint Commissioner. He would also submit that the third respondent, without permission from the Department, had proceeded to engage the services of the petitioner.

3. However, considering the fact that the petitioner had made a representation to the respondents, there shall be a direction to the first
