The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offences under Sections 132, 224, 351(2), 353(1)(b), 353(2) and 308(2) of BNS, 2023 in Crime No.193 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the de-facto complainant was a private contractor who was constructing a Government hospital by utilizing the Government funds. The petitioner is said to have taken a video and started spreading false information in the social media. He was also threatening the de-facto complainant with dire consequences and was abusing him in filthy language.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side, and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, and considering the fact that the petitioner claims to be a social activist, who was questioning the construction of the hospital with savudu soil, and also considering the fact that there were two other cases, which were registered on 16.11.2024 and 17.11.2024 by the same police, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Ramanathapuram, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank Pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police as and when required for interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioner shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioner in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioner released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court
