The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence under Sections 296(b), 118(2), 351(3) BNS in Crime No.254 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a previous land dispute between the parties. On the date of incident, the accused persons are said to have assaulted the defacto complainant and also threatened with dire consequences.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent.

4. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that there was a land dispute between the parties and the fact that injured has been discharged from the hospital and taking note of the fact that there are no previous cases against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is ordered and the
