The petitioner/accused who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under sections 296(b), 115(2) and 351(2) BNS r/w Section 4 of TNPHW Act in Crime No. 314 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant and the petitioner are mother and son. There was some property dispute between them. The petitioner is said to have gone to the house of the defacto complainant in an inebriated state and also pushed her down and also attacked his sister with hands. He also threatened them with dire consequences.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent.

4. Taking into consideration of the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the fact that there is a property dispute between the parties and suit is also pending, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
