2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons are said to have assaulted the defacto complainant using a long knife and threatened him with dire consequences on the ground that the defacto complainant attempted to talk with a girl namely Yogeswari. There are totally 2 named accused persons and others involved in this case.

3. Heard the learned counsel on either side and perused the material records of the case.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the manner in which this incident had taken place and also considering the age of the petitioners and considering the fact that there are no previous cases against the petitioners and the petitioners have suffered incarceration from 21.11.2024, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners subject to the following conditions:

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on their executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees ten thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Viralimalai, and on further conditions that:-

surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioners shall report before the respondent Police on every Monday and Friday at 05.30 p.m. until further orders.

[c] the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.

[d] the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial.

[e] On breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji vs. State of Kerala [(2005)AIR SCW 5560].

[f] If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of BNS, 2023
