of the first petitioner. On 28.01.2018 at about 11.00 AM, the first petitioner's husband was riding the motor cycle bearing Registration No.TN 65 Q 3524 and at that time, the offending car bearing Registration No.TN 66 U 5422 came from the opposite side in a rash and negligent manner and dashed on the first petitioner's husband's motor cycle. In view of the said accident, the said Arockiasamy sustained grievous injury and died on the spot. In the meantime, an application was filed as early as in the year 2018 and the same was numbered as M.C.O.P.No.11 of 2019 and the said claim petition is stalled for the past five years and after losing her husband, the first petitioner finding it very difficult to run her family and also struggling to educate her children. Hence, the present Civil Revision Petition is filed.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for petitioner. Since the revision is filed for seeking early disposal, no notice is necessary to the respondent.

4. Having been taken into consideration of the material facts and circumstances, this Court is of the view that in the interest of justice, a direction may be issued to the learned Subordinate Judge, Devakottai, to dispose of the suit as expeditiously as possible.

5. Accordingly, this Civil Revision Petition stands disposed of with a direction to the learned Subordinate Judge, Devakottai to dispose of the suit in M.C.O.P.No.11 of 2019 pending on his file, within a period of three (3) months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order on merits and in accordance with law. There shall be no order as to costs.
