2. The case of the prosecution is that a marriage was arranged between the accused and the defacto complainant by both the families. A betrothal function was also held on 25.03.2024 and marriage date was fixed. Thereafter, the accused and the defacto complainant were in touch with each other through a social media platform. Subsequently, the accused person is said to have refused to marry the defacto complainant. When the same was questioned, he abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and threatened with dire consequences.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the nature of dispute involved in this case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is ordered and the petitioner is ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the Additional Mahila Court (Judicial Magistrate), Tiruchirapalli District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, each
