salary, security deposit, gratuity etc., with interest from 01.04.2002 to 31.07.2006 within the time frame that may be stipulated by this Court and Consider petitioner's representation dated 15.09.2023.

ORDER

Heard Mr.K.Guhan, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.J.Ashok, learned Additional Government Pleader for the respondents.

2. By consent of both parties, this writ petition is taken up for final disposal at the stage of admission itself.

3.The petitioner's husband was working as a Salesman under the fifth respondent from the year 1983 till his retirement in the year 2006. The petitioner's husband was disbursed with salary only till 2002 and thereafter, the petitioner was not granted with any salary. The fifth respondent Society was liquidated in the year 2012. Hence, the petitioner seeking disbursement of salary, bonus, leave salary, security deposit, gratuity etc., of her husband from 01.04.2002 to 31.07.2006 made a representation dated 15.09.2023 to the respondents. 4. It is needless to point out that whenever a representation of this nature is made to a Government Authority, there is a duty cast upon the respondents to consider the same on its own merits and pass appropriate orders in one way or other, instead of keeping the same pending indefinitely. The failure on the part of the authority had prompted the petitioner to file this petition for seeking relief through issuance of Writ of Mandamus. As the petitioner has made out a case for invoking the extraordinary powers of this Court under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, the respondents are required to be given with a direction to consider the representation of the petitioner within a specified time frame.

5. In the light of the above observations, there shall be a direction to the respondents herein to consider the petitioner's representation dated 15.09.2023 on its own merits and pass appropriate orders in accordance with law, within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is made clear that this Court has not gone into the merits of the claim of the petitioner and it is open to the respondents to consider the same on its own merits.

W.P.(MD)No.28927 of 2023

6. With the above direction, the Writ Petition stands disposed of.

No costs.
