seeks bail.

of NDPS Act, 1985, in Crime No.226 of 2023, on the file of the respondent police,

2.The case of the prosecution is that on 13.05.2023, on receipt of secret information, the respondent Police conducted a raid and he identified a car bearing Registration No.TN 666 W 5648 with 25 kgs of Ganja and the same was seized. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner did not commit any offences as alleged by the prosecution. Further, there is no recovery from the petitioner. Hence, he prays to grant bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent would submit that though no previous case is pending against the petitioner, the contraband seized from the car is a commercial quantity and the investigation is pending. Hence, he opposed to grant bail to the petitioner.

5.Heard. Perused the materials available on record including the First Information Report.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that ganja seized by the respondent Police is the commercial quantity, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
