2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused persons on the premise that they would obtain a job to the de-facto complainant in Canada, demanded and received a sum of Rs.12,00,000/- from the de-facto complainant and paid only a sum of Rs.10,50,000/- on various dates. When the de-facto complainant demanded the remaining amount, A2 and A3 prolonging the issue and they refused to give the original passport and visa to the de-facto complainant. Hence, the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate would submit that this is the second anticipatory bail application filed by the petitioner and this Court has already dismissed the earlier anticipatory bail application of the petitioner. The accused neither returned back the money nor the passport and visa of the de-facto complainant. Hence, he vehemently opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the gravity of offence and the earlier anticipatory bail petition was dismissed by this Court and there is no change of circumstances, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

6. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is dismissed.
