CRL OP(MD) No.22661 of 2023

the respondent police, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner is alleged to have found in possession of 500 gms of brown sugar.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would further submit that the petitioner is in custody since 03.11.2023 and therefore, he prays for bail. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner further submitted that the case was registered in the year 1999 and the charge sheet has been filed only in the year 2001. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would further submit that the co-accused has been enlarged on bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police submitted that the quantity involved in this case is a commercial quantity and he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner. He would further submit that the trial is in progress.

5. Taking into consideration the nature and gravity of offence and the considering the fact that the quantity of contraband involved in this case is a commercial quantity, I am not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.

6. Hence this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of with a direction to the learned Additional District and Sessions Judge / Presiding Officer, Special Court for
