petitioners would submit that, the entire machinery of the petitioners had engaged in making pre-arrangements for the examination for the recruitment, the said reason is not appealing to this Court, since for making such pre-arrangements, no department can take such a huge time of more than 500 days. However, since the merits of the main issue raised in the writ appeal has to be decided, we feel that this petition, if at all to be allowed, is to be allowed on terms.
