Aggrieved by the condition imposed by the trial Court as a pre-condition to return the vehicle that the offending vehicle should be produced on the first working day of every month, the petitioner has filed the present Criminal Revision Case.

2. Heard Mr.N.Anandakumar, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.A.Thiruvadi Kumar, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the State.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is complying with the conditions regularly. The learned counsel further submits that the petitioner was engaged in various contract work and because of his contract work, it is difficult to comply with the condition and he is losing his business opportunity in the first week of every month, and hence, he prayed to relax the condition.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submits that petitioner is not complying with the conditions imposed by this Court regularly and hence, the conditions may be modified once in three months.

5. This Court does not find any hardship in the said condition. The trial Court has imposed the said condition to ensure that the vehicle is not driven away. However, considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is losing his business opportunity in the first week of every month, the said condition is modified to the effect that the petitioner herein shall produce the vehicle before the trial Court once in every three months. Except this modification, all the other conditions stand confirmed.

6. With the above modification, this Criminal Revision Case is disposed of.
