2.The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant well known the accused persons from his childhood. On 10.12.2023 at about 06.30 p.m., the petitioners threatened the defacto complainant and demanded money for consumption of alcohol. When the defacto complainant refused his demand, the defacto complainant was attacked by the accused persons. Thereby, the present complaint has been registered.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners would submit that the petitioners has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and the petitioners is falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) would submit that the petitioners are habitual offenders. Apart from this case, nine previous cases are pending against the 1st accused, and four previous cases are pending against the second accused, which are not in similar nature. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that already nine previous cases are pending against the 1st petitioner and four previous cases are pending against the 2nd petitioner and they are habitual offenders,

CRL OP(MD) No.22990 of 2023

I am not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.
