3. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent Police would submit that the defacto complainant made a complaint under Section 163 of Cr.P.C. before the lower Court and pursuant to which, the respondent Police registered a case against the petitioner herein and thereafter, the respondent Police conducted the investigation and filed a report before the concerned Court. He would further submit that the defacto complainant did not produce any documents with regard to the job racketeering and a report has also been filed before this Court.

4. In view of the above, since the defacto complainant did not produce any documents with regard to the job racketeering and no case was registered against the petitioner, the Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed as infructuous.
