2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with two other accused persons were having ganja in their bike. At that time, when the Police officials were in patrol duty, Accused Nos.1 ran away from that place and the respondent Police arrested Accused Nos.2 and 3 and thereafter, seized the ganja from the accused persons. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in this case and he has nothing to do with the alleged offence. He would further submit that totally 80 grams of Ganja were recovered from Accused Nos.2 and 3 alone. Hence, he prayed for anticipatory bail.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent Police would submit that there is no previous case pending against the petitioner and totally, 80 gms of Ganja were recovered from the accused persons.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also
