2. According to the revision petitioners, they filed a suit for the relief of mandatory injunction to demolish the old building in suit property and partition of the suit schedule property and declare the release deed, dated 23.08.2017 as null and void in O.S.No.28 of 2017. Before the Covid-19 lockdown, the defendant filed various interlocutory applications to delay the suit. After completion of plaintiff's side argument, the suit was posted for defendant's side argument on 18.03.2024 itself. But at the request of defendant's side suit is periodically posted for defendant side arguments. Hence, the present Civil Revision Petition is filed.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for petitioner. Since the revision is filed for seeking early disposal, no notice is necessary to the respondent.

4. Having been taken into consideration of the material facts and circumstances, this Court is of the view that in the interest of justice, a direction may be issued to the learned District Munsif Court, Rameswaram, to dispose of the case as expeditiously as possible.

5. Accordingly, this Civil Revision Petition stands disposed of with a direction to the learned District Munsif Court, Rameswaram to dispose of the O.S.No.28 of 2017 pending on his file, within a period of two (2) months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order on merits and in accordance with law. There shall be no order as to costs.
