2. The case of the prosecution is that there was a previous enmity between the parties. On the date of occurrence, there was a fight between the parties and as a result, the accused persons are said to have abused in filthy language and attacked the defacto complainant with deadly weapons and caused him serious injuries. There are totally four accused persons in this case and the petitioners have been arrayed as A2 and A4.

3. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent police.

4. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the manner, in which, this incident had taken place and also taking note of the fact that there is a case and counter case pending investigation before the police in Crime No.490 and 491 of 2024 and the injured has already been discharged from the hospital and there are no previous cases pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners. Accordingly, this criminal original petition is ordered and the petitioners are ordered to be released on anticipatory bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Sivagangai, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a bond for a sum of
