2. Based on a complaint given by the de-facto complainant, a First Information Report, in Crime No.8 of 2006, came to be registered by the respondent police as against the accused for the offence under Section 420 of IPC.

3. The respondent, after completing the investigation, has filed the final report and the same was taken on file in C.C.No.122 of 2007 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Uthamapalayam, Theni District.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner has been convicted by the trial Court on 21.12.2022, and the trial Court sentenced the petitioner/ A3 to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of three years and to pay a fine of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only), in default, to undergo simple imprisonment for a period of one month for the offence under Section 420 of IPC.

5. Challenging the above said conviction and sentence, the petitioner/ A3 has preferred appeal in Criminal Appeal No.8 of 2023 on the file of the learned Additional District (Fast Track) Court, Theni. By a judgment, dated 22.11.2024, the learned Additional District (Fast Track) Court, Theni dismissed the appeal by confirming the conviction and sentence imposed by the learned Judicial Magistrate, Uthamapalayam, Theni District in C.C.No.122 of 2007 dated 21.12.2022. Being dissatisfied with the said conviction and sentence, the petitioner has preferred the

6. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that there are several infirmities in the prosecution case, and also there are contradictions in material particulars between the evidence of the prosecution witnesses. He has also submitted that the fine amount of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand only) imposed on the petitioner has been paid.

7. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent submitted that there are enough materials available on record against the petitioner and hence, he opposed to grant suspension of sentence.

8. This Court has carefully considered the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent, and has also perused the materials available on record.

9. The learned counsel for the petitioner pointed out that there are certain infirmities and inconsistencies in this case, and also there are certain contradictions in material particulars. The fact remains that there are arguable points involved in this criminal revision and further, the criminal revision is not likely to be taken up for final hearing in the near future, this Court is of the considered view that the petitioner herein is entitled to the relief of grant of suspension of sentence.
