This Criminal Original Petition has been filed seeking a direction to the second respondent Police not to harass the petitioner herein.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is being called for enquiry by the second respondent Police in relation to a civil dispute with the third respondent, who is the petitioner's wife's brother. The dispute arose when the petitioner and his sister sold a family property with undivided shares to a third person. Later, the third person sought a 1/4th share in the undivided property and requested a demarcation of the share. The petitioner's sister is claiming a larger share than what she is entitled to. This caused a dispute at the time of the registration of the document at the Sub Registrar Office. The petitioner's wife and the third respondent had sold the family property without demarcating the common property, and after demarcation, the third respondent demanded a larger portion than his entitlement. There was some objection at the time of execution of the document at the Sub Registrar Office. Now, the petitioner has been called for enquiry due to the said issue. The learned counsel for the petitioner also submitted that a civil suit is pending between the petitioner's wife and the third respondent.

3. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that the Police had received an emergency call (100) from the Sub Registrar Office, which prompted the enquiry. The petitioner was called for questioning in connection with the said call, but he is no longer required.

4. Recording the above submission, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of.
