respondent for the offences punishable under sections 147, 448, 427, 506(1) IPC in Crime No.180 of 2024 on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant purchased the property from the accused 1 and 2 and after purchase, the accused 1 and 2 trespassed into the property and illegally evicted the tenants and illegally occupied the defacto complainant's property and rented out the 2nd and 3rd floors to MAM Engineering College students. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he was falsely implicated in this case. He has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The petitioner is no way connected in this case.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submits that there is tenancy dispute between the parties and the accused illegally trespassed into the property of the defacto complainant and the petitioner has no previous case. He strongly objected for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
