The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 324, 342 and 506(2) of IPC, in Crime No.928 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seek anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 15.12.2023 at about 8.00 p.m., the accused persons are said to have abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and assaulted the defacto complainant with wooden log and that he sustained grievous injuries. Thereafter, the defacto complainant was admitted in the Hospital by the neighbour. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons, they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and they have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioners are law-abiding citizens and they are ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court; therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that, due to civil dispute between the parties, the petitioners abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted the defacto complainant and that he sustained injuries and was admitted to the hospital. He further submitted that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioners and that the injured was discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsel on both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the representation made by both sides, the nature of offences, the fact that already the injured was discharged from the hospital and also taking into consideration that there are no previous cases pending against the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy was made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court
