No.189 of 2024, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 07.12.2024 at about 18.00 hrs, the defacto complainant's goats went into the agriculture field of the accused. Hence, the petitioner/accused abused the defacto complainant in filthy language and attacked the defacto complainant's husband by using stick. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is law-abiding citizen and he is ready and willing to furnish substantial sureties and to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court; therefore, he prayed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that, the petitioner abused the defacto complainant with filthy language and assaulted the defacto complainant's husband with stick and that he sustained injuries. He further submitted that there is one previous case pending against the petitioner in similar nature. However, he vehemently opposed the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard the learned counsel on both side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the representation made by both sides, the nature of offences, the fact that already the injured was discharged from the hospital and also taking into consideration that though there is one previous case pending against the petitioner in similar nature, already bail was granted in that case, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner, subject to the following conditions:

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date on which the order copy was made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No.II, Sattur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, and on further conditions that:
