3. Heard Sri K. Sai Babu, learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner as well as Sri Syed Yasar Mamoon, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the respondent.

4. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that during the investigation, the police arrested the de facto complainant and seized a dagger. The complainant and his family members were examined, and their statements were recorded. They were also treated at Osmania General Hospital as outpatients. He further submitted that the allegations against the petitioner is false and vague, with no specific allegations or overt acts and that they were seriously beaten by the complainant and his family members, resulting in grievous injuries. The petitioner is residents of Hyderabad, and some of them are students or have families with school-going children. He further submitted that the police are trying to arrest and detain them illegally, stating that he is involved in non-bailable offence cases. He further submitted that petitioners Nos.2 to 8/accused Nos.6 and 12 were already released on anticipatory bail vide CrI.P.No.14715 of 2024, dated 06.12.2024. Therefore, he prayed the Court to grant bail to the petitioner by allowing this criminal petition.

5. Learned Additional Public Prosecutor countered that serious allegations have been made against the petitioner, and the investigation is ongoing. The police have collected medical reports of the injured persons, which reveal that some sustained simple injuries, while others suffered grievous injuries. Accused Nos.2 and 4 have been arrested, while the remaining accused are absconding. Therefore, he prayed that the Court dismiss the criminal petition.

6. After considering the submissions made by both the learned counsel and a perusal of the material available on record, it apparent that the alleged offence occurred on Diwali, when a dispute broke out between the complainant and the accused while lighting crackers, resulting in injuries to both parties. Since both parties have filed cases against each other and petitioner Nos.2 to 8/accused Nos.6 to 12 were already granted anticipatory bail by this court and the material part of the investigation is completed, the Court deems it fit to grant pre-arrest bail to the petitioner/accused No.3 with the following conditions:
