

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

384

CR-4152-2022 (O&M)

Date of Decision : 11.03.2024

MANISH CHAND

.... Petitioner

VERSUS

RAMESH KUMAR & ANR.

.... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE ALKA SARIN

Present : Mr. Manish Mehta, Advocate for the petitioner.

ALKA SARIN, J. (ORAL)

1. The present petition has been filed by the tenant-petitioner against the concurrent findings recorded by the Rent Controller and the Appellate Authority.
2. As per the E-Courts website of District Courts Narnaul, in the execution petition, the possession of the premises has already been taken by respondent No.1-landlord and the execution petition stands dismissed being fully satisfied vide order dated 05.09.2023 and hence the present petition has since been rendered infructuous.
3. Dismissed as having been rendered infructuous. Pending applications, if any, also stand disposed off.

11.03.2024

Aman Jain

(ALKA SARIN)

JUDGE

*NOTE: Whether speaking/non-speaking: Speaking
Whether reportable: YES/NO*