MANISHA BATRA, J (ORAL):-

- The present petition has been filed under Section 482 of Code of Criminal Procedure for quashing of FIR No. 20 dated 17.04.2017 registered under Sections 406 and 498-A of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Women, District Police Commissionerate Jalandhar (Annexure P-1) and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, on the basis of compromise dated 23.09.2022(Annexure P-2).
2. The aforementioned FIR had been lodged by respondent No.2/complainant and investigation was commenced thereon.
3. It is submitted by counsel for the petitioner that a compromise has been arrived at between the parties and they have resolved their inter se dispute, which was reduced into writing as compromise dated 23.09.2022 annexed with the present petition as Annexure P-2.
4. On the basis of said compromise, the petitioner has prayed for quashing of the aforesaid FIR and all the subsequent proceedings on the ground that continuation of such proceedings would be a futile exercise.

5. It is relevant to mention here that the present petitioner had been declared proclaimed person in this case vide order dated 24.10.2017. On filing of the present petition by him, this court had given direction to him as well as to the complainant to appear before the learned trial Court/ Illaqa Magistrate for recording their statements with regard to the genuineness of the compromise stated to have been arrived at between them. The trial Court/Illaqa Magistrate was also directed to send his/her report along with the said statements.

6. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, The Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Jalandhar has sent report vide endorsement No. 233 dated 09.08.2023 to this Court alongwith the statements of respondent No.2-Usha Rani and petitioner recorded on 01.08.2023 and statement of Investigating Officer ASI-Rajesh Kumar as recorded on 08.08.2023.

7. On the basis of statement of the parties recorded before it, the learned Magistrate submitted a report that compromise was effected between them which was genuine out of free will, without any pressure or coercion. It was also mentioned that the present petitioner has been declared proclaimed offender in this case. It is also relevant to mention here that the petitioner had filed another petition bearing No. CRM-M-1094-2023 titled as 'Lokesh Seth vs. State of Punjab' challenging the order dated 24.10.2017 passed in the same FIR whereby he had been declared proclaimed offender and vide a separate order of even date the petition so filed by him has been ordered to be allowed today and the proceedings declared him proclaimed offender had been ordered to be quashed.

8. On the basis of these statements, it is submitted by learned Magistrate that the compromise effected between the parties is genuine, out of free Will and without any pressure or coercion. It is also mentioned in the report that apart from the petitioner(s), there is no other accused in the FIR and that the accused has been declared proclaimed person in this case.

9. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and besides perusing the report by learned Judicial Magistrate, have also perused the record.

10. It is well settled that the High Court has power to allow compounding of a non-compoundable offence and quash the prosecution under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. where it feels that the same is required to prevent the abuse of process of law or otherwise to secure the ends of justice. Such power is not confined to matrimonial disputes alone. In this regard, reference can be made to a Full Bench judgment of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others v. State of Punjab, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052. It is equally settled position of law that the power of High Court in quashing criminal proceedings or FIR or complaint in exercise of its inherent jurisdiction is of wide plenitude with no statutory limitation. Such power can certainly be exercised in cases relating to offences arising out of matrimony relating to dowry etc. or the family disputes where the wrong is basically private or personal in nature and the parties have resolved their entire dispute. The High Court is required to consider whether it would be unfair or contrary to the interest of justice to continue with the criminal proceedings or continuation of criminal proceedings would tantamount to abuse of process of law and whether to secure the ends of justice, it is appropriate to put an end to the criminal case and if the answer to such question is in affirmative, then the High Court is well within its jurisdiction to quash the criminal proceedings. Reference in this context can be made to Hon'ble Apex Court judgments cited as Gian Singh v. State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Criminal) 543 and Narinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another, 2014 (6) SCC 466.

11. In view of the proposition as settled in the aforementioned cases, this Court finds that continuation of proceedings would be an abuse process of the Court in the facts and circumstances of the present case which squarely falls within the ambit and parameters settled by judicial precedents and that allowing and accepting the prayer of the petitioner by quashing of the FIR would be securing the ends of justice, which is primarily the object of legislature enacted under Section 482 of Cr.P.C. Accordingly, the petition is allowed and the FIR No. 20 dated 17.04.2017 registered under Sections 406 and 498-A of Indian Penal Code, 1860 at Police Station Women, District Police Commissionerate Jalandhar (Annexure P-1) and all the subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, are ordered to be quashed qua the petitioner on the basis of compromise dated 23.09.2022 (Annexure P-2).

12. Needless to say that the parties shall remain bound by the terms and conditions of the compromise and statements as recorded before learned Judicial Magistrate.
