MEENAKSHI I. MEHTA, J.(ORAL)

By filing the instant revision-petition under Article 227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner-plaintiff has sought the indulgence of this Court for the issuance of the direction to learned Civil Judge (Junior Division), Batala (for short ‘the trial Court’) to decide Civil Suit No.210 of 2020 titled as ‘Karnail Singh versus Kulwant Singh’ expeditiously by recording his evidence after preponing the date of hearing in the said Suit, while averring that he is 76 years old and has been suffering from the life threatening disease.

2. However, at this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner-plaintiff restricts his prayer to the issuance of the direction to the trial Court to conclude the proceedings in the afore-referred Civil Suit and to decide the same at the earliest.

3. Heard.

4. Keeping in view the above-discussed limited prayer as made by learned counsel for the petitioner-plaintiff as well as the facts that the petitioner happens to be a senior citizen and is suffering from various ailments, as reflected in his medical-record (Annexure P-5) and the afore-said Civil Suit is pending adjudication since the year 2020 and without commenting or expressing any opinion on the merits thereof, the revision-petition in hand is, hereby, disposed of with the direction to the concerned trial Court to expedite the proceedings in the above-mentioned Civil Suit and to decide the same, in accordance with law, as early as possible.
