SUMEET GOEL, J.

1. By way of present petition, the petitioners are seeking quashing of FIR No.97 dated 29.08.2023 under Sections 341, 323, 324, 506, 34 of IPC (Sections 307, 354 of IPC added later on), registered at Police Station Majitha Road, Amritsar and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 11.10.2023 (Annexure P-2/T), which is stated to have been effected between the parties.

As and when any such appearance is made, the trial Court/Illaq Magistrate shall do the needful for recording the statements of the parties qua the factum of the compromise. It shall be open to the trial Court/Illaq Magistrate to either record the statements of the parties by physical process or by* video conferencing as deemed appropriate by the trial Court/Illaq Magistrate.

(ii) In case the statement is to be recorded by way of video conferencing, the parties concerned shall be duly identified through video conferencing by their respective counsel, subject to the satisfaction of the Presiding Officer.

(iii) The trial Court/Illaq Magistrate may also choose to get the statements of the parties recorded through some Commissioner, appointed by the Court who would be some Advocate having sufficient standing at the Bar. (iii) Whether any accused has been declared Proclaimed Offender?

The report be submitted before this Court before the next date of hearing i.e. 28.05.2024.

The question of maintainability of the instant petition is kept open.”

3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 21.05.2024 from Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Amritsar has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

(i) As per the statement of ASI Amar Singh, the Investigating Officer, apart from the petitioners no other person is arrayed as accused in the present FIR.

(ii) As per the statement of ASI Amar Singh Investigating Officer as well as the statements of both the parties, there is no other complainant or affected/aggrieved party other than the respondents arrayed in the petition.

(iii) As per the statement of ASI Amar Singh, Investigating Officer and record, none of the above-named accused have been declared proclaimed offender in the present FIR.

(iv) In view of the statement recorded by both the parties, this court is satisfied that the compromise effected between the parties is genuine, voluntary which is not the result of any pressure or coercion.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent Nos.2 to 4 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2/T).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

(a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.

(b) However, wider the power greater the caution.

(c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.

- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.*
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.*
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.*
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.*

8. As per MLR(s) conducted, the weapon alleged to be used is blunt in nature. The injury(s) in question is stated to be grievous in nature.

As per said MLR(s) no injury has been found to be life threatening.

Therefore, it cannot be said that the case in hand would call for invoking of Section 307 of IPC.

9. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

10. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.97 dated 29.08.2023 under Sections 341, 323, 324, 506, 34 of IPC (Sections 307, 354 of IPC added later on), registered at Police Station Majitha Road, Amritsar and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 11.10.2023 (Annexure P-2/T, are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.

11. Pending application(s), if any, shall also stand disposed off.
