3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 06.02.2024 from Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Ambala has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

"I have the honour to refer to the directions issued by the Hon'ble High Court vide order dated 24.01.2024, passed by Hon'ble High Court in CRM-M-3935-2024(O&M) titled as "Pardeep Kumar & Ors. Versus State of Haryana & Ors.", whereby the parties were directed to appear before the trial Court/Illqaua Magistrate on 30.01.2024 or any date thereafter as fixed by trial Court/Illaqua Magistrate for recording their statements. Complainant Uma Dhiman & accused/petitioners Pardeep Kumar, Naresh Kumar, Maya Devi @ Maya Rani, Rajinder Kumar and Seema @ Seema Dhiman have come present on 05.02.2024 in the court. Their statements to the effect that they have compromised the matter with each other voluntarily without any coercion or undue influence, pressure etc. from any side have been recorded. Statement of SI Nafe Singh no.502/A PS Parao, Ambala, has been recorded today i.e. on 06.02.2024 to the effect that on the complaint of complainant Uma Dhiman, present FIR was registered against the accused Pardeep Kumar, Naresh Kumar, → Maya Devi, Rajinder Kumar and Seema. During investigation, accused Maya Devi @ Maya Rani, Rajinder Kumar and Seema @ Seema Dhiman were found innocent. Challan against the Pardeep Kumar and Naresh Kumar was filed in the court. Neither there is any accused is proclaimed offender nor such proceedings are pending in this case.

As such, from statements of the parties, I am of the opinion that the compromise arrived between the complainant and all the aforesaid accused is genuine, voluntary and without any coercion or undue influence. Report in the matter along-with original statements, photo-state copies of Aadhar-card of the parties & compromise Mark-A are enclosed here-with for consideration of the Hon'ble High Court, please."

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 to 4 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another

No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.0010 dated 06.01.2022 under Sections 323, 406, 498-A, 506 of IPC, registered at Police Station, Mahesh Nagar, and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 21.11.2023 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
