DR. VISHNU K.PETITIONER

V/S

UNION OF INDIA AND ORSRESPONDENTS

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JAGMOHAN BANSAL

Present: Mr.Santosh Paul, Sr. Advocate with Mr.Samir Rathaur, Advocate for the petitioner.

JAGMOHAN BANSAL, J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner through instant petition under Article 226 of Constitution of India is seeking setting aside of order dated 18.08.2023 (Annexure P-27) whereby he has been terminated from service.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the impugned order is stigmatic and it would affect his future prospect. The respondent has terminated service of the petitioner without three months notice, thus, the respondent is liable to pay three months salary which comes to Rs.3.03 lakhs. The belongings of the petitioner are lying in the flat allotted to him. The respondents may be directed to permit him to take away his belongings.
3. Notice of motion.
4. Mr.Vivek Singla, Advocate, accepts notice on behalf of respondents No. 3 to 5 and waives service. He submits that as per his instructions, the management is ready to pay three months salary to the petitioner and management has no objection if the petitioner takes away his belongings and vacate the flat. He further submits that impugned order is not stigmatic.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner agrees to aforesaid arrangement.
6. In the wake of statement of both sides, the present petition stands disposed of. The respondents shall pay three months salary to the petitioner within two weeks from today and the petitioner would vacate his flat within two weeks and he would be at liberty to take away his belongings.
