HARKESH MANUJA, J. (ORAL)

1. By way of present petition filed under Section 439 CrPC, prayer has been made for grant of regular bail in case FIR No. 66 dated 19.04.2023 registered under Section 379-B, 34 and Section 411 of IPC, at Police Station Cantonment, District Amritsar (Annexure P-1) wherein, the petitioner has been implicated with the allegations of having snatched a mobile phone from the complainant.
2. The prayer made herein has been opposed at the instance of learned State counsel while submitting that such kind of incidents are on the rise in society and considering the custody part, the petitioner does not deserve the concession of regular bail.
3. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and gone through the paper book. I find substance in the submissions made on behalf of the petitioner.
4. In the present case, the investigation already stands concluded with the filing of challan and the petitioner is behind the bars for a period of more than 8 months now, even the charges have been framed. Further, the petitioner is not involved in any other case of similar nature and learned counsel for the petitioner on instructions submits that the petitioner even volunteers to deposit a non-refundable sum of Rs.15,000/- as compensation to the complainant without prejudice to his rights in trial. Considering the aforesaid, this Court does not find justification to extend his incarceration any further.

5. In view of the above, without commenting anything on the merits, lest it may prejudice the case of either side, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on regular bail on his furnishing adequate bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the concerned learned trial Court/Duty Magistrate and deposit of Rs.15,000/- with the trial Court at the time of his release, which shall be released in favour of the complainant upon due verification.
