3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 23.02.2024 from Judicial Magistrate Ist Class, Rohtak has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the Trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“1. In above mentioned CRM-M-2592-2024 titled: Gaurav Sharma Vs. State of Haryana & Anr., the Hon'ble High Court was pleased to pass an order dated 19-01-2024 for recording the statement of the parties with regard to compromise among them.
2. The order was received through proper channel vide Endst No. 427 dated 24-01-2024, being the Trial Court.
3. The case concerned titled: State Vs. Gaurav & Anr. (F.I.R. No. 70 of 11.01.2021 (P.S. Women, Rohtak), C.I.S. No. CHI-137- 2021) is pending adjudication before the court of undersigned. Parties were directed to appear before the Trial Court / Illaqa Magistrate for recording statement on dated 25.01.2024 or any other date fixed by the court.
4. On dated 25-01-2024 and 03-02-2024, parties had not come present for recording of statements. Consequently, a report vide Endst. No. 105 of 07.02.2024 was sent to the Hon'ble High Court.
5. Complainant and accused persons Gaurav Sharma and Smt. Darshana Devi came present with their counsels. Application was moved requesting recording of statements on ground that on dated 03.02.2024, parties could not come present due to medical circumstances. Keeping in view the gist of the order of the Hon'ble High Court wherein it was directed that parties are to be recorded as and when they make appearance, and since the parties had appeared before the next date of hearing before the Hon'ble High Court (28.02.2024), parties were recorded. Complainant Smt. Jyoti and Accused Sh. Gaurav Sharma and Smt. Darshana were identified through their photo-I.D.s and counsels. Parties were questioned as to the genuineness of their settlement. Parties submitted that the matter had been amicably settled.
6. Statement of parties was recorded on solemn affirmation in presence of counsels and under identification. No separate written compromise was filed. Having heard the parties and after perusing their statements, and from their general demeanour, I am satisfied that the statements were suffered without any coercion or undue influence, and the compromise entered by them is genuine and valid.
7. Statement of Investigating Officer was also recorded.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-3).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.

- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.0070 dated 29.09.2020 under Sections 34, 498-A and 506 of IPC (Section 406 of IPC added later on), registered at Police Station, Women Police Station, Rohtak District Rohtak and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 13.01.2024 (Annexure P-3), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
