CRM-M-2697-2024

[1] By way of this petition filed under Section 439 Cr.P.C., petitioner is seeking regular bail in case FIR No.16 dated 03.02.2022
under Section 420 of IPC, 1860, registered at Police Station Sector 3 (North), Chandigarh.

[2] Custody Certificate dated 05.03.2024 has been filed in Court today. The same is taken on record.

[3] Learned counsel contends that matter is triable by Magistrate; that petitioner is in custody for the last more than 05 months; that matter has since been compromised amongst the parties, so he be allowed bail.

[4] Though counsel for the complainant has stated that he has no objection in granting the bail to the petitioner but learned State Counsel opposed the bail petition by pointed out that petitioner is involved in 02 more cases of similar nature.

[5] Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that in those cases also, compromise has been effected.

[6] Having regard to the compromise having been effected between the parties in the present case; that case is triable by the Magistrate; that the petitioner is in custody for the last more than 05 months, as per custody certificate, no purpose would be served by keeping the petitioner detained. As such, without commenting anything further on the merits of the case or anything regarding the legality of the compromise effected between the parties, this petition is allowed and petitioner is admitted to bail on his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the learned trial Court/Duty Magistrate concerned, on usual terms and conditions.
