MEENAKSHI I. MEHTA, J. (ORAL)

Learned counsel for the respondent submits that the instant appeal has become infructuous in view of the letter dated 19.07.1994, as written by the Deputy Project Officer of the appellant to the Recovery Officer of the respondent-Corporation, mentioning therein that the amount of Rs.23,723.15Ps, as due from the appellant towards the ESI Contributions for the period from March, 1977 to January, 1980, had already been deposited by it (appellant) with the Court of learned Senior Sub Judge, Chandigarh and he has submitted the copy of the above-referred letter in the Court and the same has been placed on the file.

Learned counsel for the appellant also submits that in view of the afore-discussed scenario, he does not want to press for the adjudication of the present appeal on merits and the appellant shall also not claim the refund of the above-mentioned amount because it has already gone under liquidation and has been wound up and therefore, he has no objection if the instant appeal is disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous.

Resultantly, the appeal in hand stands disposed of accordingly.
