State of Haryana & Anr.', complainant along-with accused appeared and made their separate statements to the effect that the matter has been compromised and they have settled their dispute without any pressure. Complainant submitted that she wants to get cancelled the FIR bearing No.423 dated 25.08.2016, P.S. City, Bahadurgarh, under Sections 498-A, 323, 406 & 506 of IPC. Further, detailed reply is hereunder as directed:- As per the statement of Investigating Officer, challan in the 1. present case under Section 173 of Cr.P.C. was filed against accused Sunil Kumar Ahlawat only. It is pertinent to mention herein that as per statement of Investigating Officer, during investigation, alleged accused namely Nirmala wife of Sarwan Kumar, Sarwan Kumar son of Randhir Singh, Ashish son of Sarwan Kumar, Sarita D/o Sarwan Kumar and Rama D/o Randhir Singh were found innocent.2. As per the statement of Investigating Officer, no any other aggrieved party was involved in the present case except the complainant namely Kusum Rani As per the statement of Investigating Officer, no accused has been declared proclaimed offender.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the factum of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioner are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated that he has no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.

- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.
- (iii) The parties have compromised.
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.423 dated 25.08.2016 under Sections 323, 498-A, 34 of IPC (Sections 406, 506 of IPC were added and Section 34 of IPC was deleted), registered at Police Station, City Bahadurgarh, District Jhajjar, Haryana and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise/settlement dated 18.01.2024 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioner.
