DEEPAK SIBAL, J. (Oral)

1. On 16.08.2022 the respondent No.2-Institute offered admission to the petitioner to the 5 year BBA-LLB Course. The tuition fee for the 1st year of the said course was Rs. 6 lakhs out of which the petitioner was required to deposit Rs.3 lakhs by 22.08.2022. However, till 22.08.2022 the petitioner had deposited only Rs.10,000/- and sought extension of time to deposit the balance amount which the respondent No.2-Institute declined. For non-deposit of the fee, the respondent No.2-Institute withdrew the offer of admission made to the petitioner on 16.08.2022. Such action of the respondent No.2-Institute is challenged by the petitioner through the instant petition.

2. Till date, the balance amount of Rs.2,90,000/- has neither been deposited by the petitioner nor even offered. Rs.10,000/- which had been deposited by the petitioner has also been refunded by the respondent No.2-Institute which amount has been accepted by the petitioner. Further, the petitioner seeks admission to the 5 year BBA-LLB course in the respondent No.2-Institute for the academic session 2022-23. Nearly two years of the course are already over.

3. After considering the totality of the afore facts and at this stage, we are not inclined to grant the relief as prayed for by the petitioner especially when we are informed that the petitioner is pursuing the 5 year BA-LLB course in the Indraprastha University, New Delhi and is presently in the 2nd year of such course.

4. Dismissed.
