Present: Mr. Jasleen Kaur, Advocate for the applicant-appellant.

None for the respondent.

Case called twice but none has put in appearance on behalf of respondent. However, as per report of the Registry, respondent stands served.

Counsel appearing for the applicant-appellant submits that the present application was filed against acquittal in the year 2018 and they have a very good case on merit.

Leave to appeal is granted.

The accused to execute a bond for attendance within two months, undertaking to appear in this court, in case the appeal is allowed.

Given above, within two months, the accused shall furnish a personal bond of Rs. Ten Thousand only (INR 10,000/-), to the satisfaction of the concerned Trial Court/Duty Magistrate.

The attesting officer shall, on the reverse page of personal bonds, mention the permanent address of the accused along with the phone number(s), WhatsApp number (if any), e-mail (if any), and in case of any change, the Accused shall immediately and not later than 30 days from such modification, intimate about the change of residential address and change of phone numbers, WhatsApp number, e-mail accounts, to the Registry of this Court.

The furnishing of the personal bonds shall be deemed acceptance of all stipulations, terms, and conditions of this bail order.

There would be no need for a certified copy of this order for furnishing bonds, and any Advocate for the accused can download this order along with case status from the official web page of this Court and attest it to be a true copy. In case the attesting officer wants to verify the authenticity, such an officer can also verify its authenticity and may download and use the downloaded copy for attesting bonds.

Registry to send a copy of this order to the trial Court as well as to the respondent(s). It is clarified that in case, after getting the copy of this order, respondent does not furnish bonds within two months, trial Court might proceed further in accordance with law.
