"With reference to the subject cited above, it is respectfully submitted that in compliance of orders dated 05.02.2024 passed by Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court, Chandigarh in CRM-M-No. 5942 of 2024, both the parties were directed to appear before the Trial Court for getting their statements recorded in support of the compromise and further report of the Trial Court was sought. In compliance of directions passed by the Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court, Chandigarh statement of accused persons namely Jagtar Singh and Darshan Kaur, complainant/aggrieved person Darshan Kaur @ Harpreet Kaur and Investigating Officer ASI Mohinder Pal No. 1064/Patiala, was recorded. The report of the undersigned is as under.

1. The undersigned has carefully gone through the Statements got recorded by complainant namely Darshan Kaur @ Harpreet Kaur and accused persons namely Jagtar Singh and Darshan Kaur. It transpires from the statements of complainant Darshan Kaur @ Harpreet Kaur and accused persons namely Jagtar Singh and Darshan Kaur that they have arrived at compromise out of their free volition and without any inducement, threat, coercion or undue influence from any quarter. Apparently, the compromise has been arrived at to eliminate bitterness and acrimony between them and in order to restore cordial relations.

2. Except accused Jagtar Singh & Darshan Kaur (i.e. petitioners) there is no other persons arrayed as an accused in the present FIR.

3. Except complainant Darshan Kaur @ Harpreet Kaur there is no other complainant or affected / aggrieved party arrayed as complainant / aggrieved in the present FIR.

4. None of the accused has ever been declared proclaimed offender in the present case.”

4. Learned counsel for respondent No.2 admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Similarly, learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned Counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and the Hon'ble Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 of the Code to quash proceeding in non-compoundable offences in the cases of Gian Singh vs. State of Punjab and another, 2012(10) SCC 303, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021). The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court and this Court is :

- (a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.
- (b) However, wider the power greater the caution.
- (c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.
- (d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.
- (e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.
- (f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.
- (g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

- (i) Putting a quietus to the proceedings will bring peace and tranquility amongst parties & will accordingly further the cause of substantial justice.*
- (ii) The offences alleged are primarily of private nature.*
- (iii) The parties have compromised.*
- (iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.*
- (v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.*

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.107 dated 04.11.2020 under Sections 406 and 498-A of IPC, registered at Police Station, Ghanaur District Patiala and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of compromise dated 23.11.2023 (Annexure P-2), are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
