CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE MANJARI NEHRU KAUL

Present : Mr. Rakesh Verma, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Amit Rana, Sr. DAG, Punjab.

MANJARI NEHRU KAUL, J.

1. The petitioners are seeking quashing of Complaint No.58 dated 01.10.2020 titled as 'State Vs. M/s Shree Guru Jambheshwar Pesticides & others' under Sections 3(k)(i), 17, 18 and 33 of the Insecticides Act, 1968 (hereinafter referred to as 'Act') which are punishable under Section 29(1) of the Act read with Rules 27(5) of the Insecticides Rules, 1971 (Annexure P-1) and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom including summoning order dated 26.10.2021 passed by learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Abohar,

2. The allegations as levelled in the complaint (Annexure P-1) may be summed up as follows:

2A. As per the complaint in question (Annexure P-1), on 01.08.2019 Insecticides Inspector Shish Pal Godara visited the premises of M/s Shree Guru Jambheshwar Pesticides, Village Gumjal, Tehsil Abohar, District Fazilka (hereinafter referred to as 'the Firm') and took a sample of the insecticides Emamectin Benzoate 5% SG, branded as XPLODE, Batch No.S0084, with a manufacturing date as 31.08.2018, and an expiry dated of 30.08.2020, allegedly manufactured by M/s Insecticides (India) Ltd., Sambha (J&K) (hereinafter referred to as 'the Manufacturing Company'). Three samples of Emamectin Benzoate 5% SG were drawn following the procedure prescribed under the Act. Out of these three sealed samples, two were handed over to the Agriculture Development Officer (Enforcement), Fazilka, one was sent to the Senior Analyst, Insecticides Testing Laboratory, Amritsar (hereinafter referred to as 'Amritsar Laboratory'). The test report from the Amritsar Laboratory found the samples to be 'misbranded', as the active ingredient content was only 4.33% SG instead of the required 5% SG as per ISI specifications. Upon the request of the dealer for a re-test, second sample was sent to the Central Insecticides Laboratory, Faridabad (hereinafter referred to as 'Faridabad Laboratory'), which was also found to be 'misbranded'. After completing the requisite formalities, including obtaining consent from the competent authority, the complaint was filed before the learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Abohar, under Sections 3(k)(i), 17, 18, 33 of the Act on 01.10.2020 (Annexure P-1). Vide order dated 26.10.2021 (Annexure P-2), the concerned Court summoned all the accused including, the petitioners, Rajesh Aggarwal (Managing Director), Neetu Singh (Godown Incharge) and Karamjit Sharma (Zonal Sales Manager of M/s Insecticides India Ltd.) to face trial.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that the learned Trial Court erroneously summoned the petitioners, who are the Managing Director, Godown Incharge and Zonal Sales Manager of the Manufacturing Company, despite the ingredients of the alleged offences not being made out against them. It has been further argued that the complaint in question contained only vague and bald allegations that the insecticide was manufactured by the company of which the petitioners were officials, without specific allegations against the petitioners themselves. Relying on State of NCT of Delhi Vs. Rajiv Khurana : 2010(3) RCR (Criminal) 912, learned counsel has asserted that under Section 33 of the Act, it is mandatory to make specific averments about the accused to being incharge of or responsible for the business of the company, and the absence of such averments renders the complaint against the petitioners unsustainable and would be an abuse of the process of law.

3A. It has been further submitted by the learned counsel that although the petitioners were holding positions in the company, they were not concerned with the quality control section. The complaint itself states that Mahesh Kumar was appointed as the Manager, Quality Control cum Responsible Person, tasked with maintaining product quality in compliance with Section 33 of the Act. Once a company has appointed a Manager, Quality Control cum Responsible Person, no other official could be thus held liable. Learned counsel has relied upon M/s Cheminova India Limited & Anr. Vs. State of Punjab & Ors, 2021 SCC OnLine SC 541 to support this argument, by stating that prosecuting the petitioners would cause grave injustice since they were admittedly not involved in the quality control.

4. Per contra, learned State counsel while opposing the prayer made by counsel opposite, has not disputed that a Quality Control Manager was in place at the time of the raid in question. However, it has been argued by the learned State counsel that the petitioners along with the other accused, have prima facie committed offences punishable under Sections 3(k)(i), 17, 18, 29 and 33 of the Act, as they were responsible for the affairs of the company, particularly ensuring the quality of the insecticides. Learned State counsel has argued that the submissions of the petitioners of not being responsible for the day to day affairs or quality control is a matter which can be delved into only during trial when the parties present their evidence.

5. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and perused the relevant material on record.

6. Before proceeding further, it would be apposite to reproduce the relevant provisions of the Act, which are as under:-

“3 (k) “misbranded”—an insecticide shall be deemed to be misbranded—

33. Offences by companies.-

(1) Whenever an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, or was responsible to the company for the conduct of the business of, the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment under this Act if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any Director, Manager, Secretary or other officer of the company, such Director, Manager, Secretary or other officer shall also be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.-For the purpose of this section,-

(a)"company" means any body corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals;and

(b)"director", in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm."

7. Hon'ble the Supreme Court in Rajiv Khurana's case (supra) emphasized the necessity of making such specific averments in complaints against the company officials by observing as follows:-

"18. The ratio of all these cases is that the complainant is required to state in the complaint how a Director who is sought to be made an accused, was in charge of the business of the company or responsible for the conduct of company's business. Every Director need not be and is not in charge of the business of the company. If that is the position with regard to a Director, it is needless to emphasise that in the case of non-Director officers, there is all the more necessary to state what were his duties and responsibilities in the conduct of business of the company and how and in what manner he is responsible or liable."

8. Similarly, Hon'ble the Supreme Court in M/s Cheminova India Limited's case (supra) regarding the liability of the Managing Director that the company had nominated other responsible persons, held as under:

"9. Section 33 of the Act deals with 'offences by companies'. A reading of Section 33(1) of the Act, makes it clear that whenever an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed, was in charge of, or was responsible to the company for the conduct of the business of, the company, as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly. In the case on hand, it is not in dispute that on behalf of the 1st Appellant – Company, 2nd Appellant – Managing Director has furnished an undertaking dated 22.01.2013, indicating that Shri Madhukar R. Gite, Manager of the Company, has been nominated in the resolution passed by the Company on 28.12.2012 to be in charge of and responsible to the said Company, to maintain the quality of the pesticides manufactured by the said Company and he was authorized to exercise all such powers and to take all such steps, as may be necessary or expedient to prevent the commission of any offence under the Act. Filing of such undertaking with the respondent is not disputed. Even, at Para 5.10 in the counter affidavit filed before this Court, it is pleaded by the Respondents that by appointing persons responsible for affairs of the Company, quality control, etc., 2nd Appellant – Managing Director cannot escape his liability from offences committed by 1st Appellant – Company. In view of the specific provision in the Act dealing with the offences by companies, which fixes the responsibility and the responsible person of the Company for conduct of its business, by making bald and vague allegations, 2nd Appellant – Managing Director cannot be prosecuted on vague allegation that he being the Managing Director of the 1st Appellant – Company, is overall responsible person for the conduct of the business of the Company and of quality control, etc. In the instant case, the Company has passed a resolution, fixing responsibility of one of the Managers namely Mr. Madhukar R. Gite by way of a resolution and the same was furnished to the respondents by the 2nd Appellant in shape of an undertaking on 22.01.2013. When furnishing of such undertaking fixing the responsibility of the quality control of the products is not in dispute, there is no reason or justification for prosecuting the 2nd Appellant – Managing Director, on the vague and spacious plea that he was the Managing Director of the Company at the relevant time. A reading of Section 33 of the Act also makes it clear that only responsible person of the Company, as well as the Company alone shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against. Though, the Managing Director is overall incharge of the affairs of the company, whether such officer is to be prosecuted or not, depends on the facts and circumstances of each case and the relevant provisions of law. Having regard to specific provision under Section 33 of the Act, and the undertaking filed in the present case, respondent cannot prosecute the 2nd Appellant herein. Thus, we find force in the contention of Mr. Sidharth Luthra, learned Senior Counsel, that allowing the prosecution against 2nd Appellant – Managing Director is nothing but, abuse of the process of law. At the same time, we do not find any ground at this stage to quash the proceedings against the 1st Appellant – Company.”

9. Upon a perusal of the allegations levelled in the complaint in question, it is clear that it lacks any specific averments showing how the petitioners were incharge of or responsible for the conduct of the business of the company, particularly regarding quality control. The complaint explicitly mentions that Mahesh Kumar was the responsible officer for quality control, and he has already been proceeded against. In the light of the case law cited, particularly M/s Cheminova India Limited's case (supra), the petitioners cannot be held vicariously liable when a quality control manager has already been identified and proceeded against.

10. As a sequel to the above and in the light of the settled law, the instant petition is allowed and the complaint in question along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom, including summoning order, are quashed qua the petitioners.
