Versus

State of Punjab and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARPREET SINGH BRARPresent: Mr. Chahit Bansal, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Sandeep Kumar, DAG, Punjab.

HARPREET SINGH BRAR, J. (ORAL)

The present criminal writ petition has been filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India for issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus for issuance of directions to respondents No.3 & 4 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioner and her family members and to restrain respondents No.4 to 8 to not harass or interfere in the life of the petitioner.

At the very outset, the learned State counsel refers to the status report and submits that the grievance raised by the petitioner has been redressed substantially. The proceedings against the private respondents No.5 to 7 have been initiated under the provisions contained under Sections 107/151 of Cr.P.C. Further, to secure the life and liberty of the petitioner, regular patrolling is being done of her house and she has been provided the mobile number of the SHO and Deputy Superintendent of Police In-Charge of the PCR of the local police station and in case of any apprehension, she can inform the jurisdictional police authorities. Further after the order passed by the jurisdictional Magistrate, the matter is being investigated.

In view of the above, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is satisfied with the action taken by the jurisdictional police authorities and further submits that the present petition may be disposed of in view of the status report filed by the State of Punjab.

Having heard learned counsel for the parties and in view of the facts and circumstances of the case, no further action is required in this matter and the same stands disposed of accordingly.
