3. Pursuant to the aforesaid order, report dated 04.04.2024 from the learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, Gidderbaha, has been received, which is taken on record. As per the report, the trial Court has recorded as follows:-

“XX XX XX

- 1. There are only two persons arrayed as accused in the present FIR who are the petitioners in the petition filed before the Hon'ble High Court.*

2. As per the statement of Investigating Officer and the accused, none of the accused has been declared proclaimed offender.
3. In the given circumstances, I am satisfied that compromise has been effected between complainant/victims Balkaran Singh, Gurtej Singh, Chanan Singh and accused Gurjant Singh, Mahinder Singh amicably, with their free consent, without any pressure and the same appears to be genuine, voluntary and without threat, coercion or undue influence and they got their statements recorded before the Court voluntarily.
4. As per statement of accused and Investigating Officer, accused are not involved in any other criminal case.
5. As per statement of Investigating Officer, Balkaran Singh, Gurtej Singh and Chanan Singh are the complainants/victims in the present FIR.”

4. Mr. Aayush Goyal, Advocate appears for respondent Nos.2 to 4 and admits the fact of parties having compromised and states that he has no objection in case the FIR and all proceedings subsequent thereto against the petitioners are quashed.

5. Learned State counsel has stated no objection in case the FIR is quashed based upon the compromise (Annexure P-2).

6. I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have carefully gone through the records of the case.

7. This Court and Apex Court has repeatedly dealt with the issue of exercise of jurisdiction under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to quash proceedings recognizing compromise between parties in non-compoundable offences in

303, State of Madhya Pradesh vs. Laxmi Narayan and others (2019) 5 SCC 688, Kulwinder Singh & others vs. State of Punjab & another, 2007 (3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 and Ram Gopal and another vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, 2021(4) R.C.R. (Criminal) 322 (Criminal Appeal No.1489 of 2012 decided on 29th of September, 2021) and Mohammad Wajid & Anr. Vs. State of U.P. & Ors., 2023 AIR (SC) 3784. The proposition of law that emerges from the aforesaid decisions rendered by Apex Court and this Court is :

(a) Power u/s 482 Cr.P.C. vested with this Court is much wider and is unaffected by Section 320 of the Code.

(b) However, wider the power greater the caution.

(c) The underlining principle while exercising such power is that it can be invoked to quash the proceedings recognizing compromise between the parties in the matters which are overwhelmingly and predominantly of civil character like commercial transactions or arising out of matrimonial relationship or family disputes.

(d) The said power is not to be exercised in the prosecutions involving heinous and serious offences of mental depravity or offences like murder, rape, dacoity etc. as such offences are not private in nature and have a serious impact on society.

(e) Section 482 Cr.P.C. casts duty upon the High Court to advance interest of justice as well. It is in recognition of this duty casted upon the High Court, that Apex Court held that the High Court would not refuse to quash FIR under Section 307 merely because FIR finds mention thereof. High Court can assess nature of injuries sustained, whether such injuries inflicted on vital/delicate parts of the body/nature of weapons used etc.

(f) Such exercise at the hands of High Court would be permissible only after the evidence is collected after investigation and chargesheet is filed/charges framed during the trial. Such exercise cannot be carried out while the matter is still under investigation.

(g) While quashing FIR in non-compoundable offences even which are of private in nature, High Court is required to consider antecedents of the accused, conduct of the accused and whether he was absconding or whether he has managed the complainant to enter into a compromise.

(h) When it comes to quashing of FIR or criminal proceedings, the criminal antecedents of the accused cannot be the sole consideration to decline to quash the criminal proceedings.

8. Thus, keeping in view the aforesaid facts and circumstances, this Court is of the considered opinion that it is a fit case to exercise jurisdiction vested u/s 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the FIR as :-

(i) The present matter does not fall within the exceptions as carved out in Laxmi Narayan's case (supra) i.e. heinous offence.

(ii) The offences alleged are of private nature.

(iii) The parties have compromised.

(iv) As per the report received the compromise is said to be voluntary in its nature.

(v) Complainant/victim is reported to have entered into compromise on his own volition.

9. Consequently, the petition is allowed. FIR No.88 dated 20.08.2018, registered for the offences punishable under Sections 323, 324,

34, 201 IPC, 1860 at Police Station Kotbhai, District Muktsar Sahib and all proceedings arising therefrom, are, hereby, quashed qua the petitioners.
