CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE NAMIT KUMAR

Present: Mr. Dinesh Arora, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Ravi Dutt Sharma, D.A.G., Haryana.

NAMIT KUMAR, J. (ORAL)

1. The petitioner has filed the instant writ petition under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, seeking a writ of certiorari, quashing the orders dated 28.02.2003 (Annexure P-8) & 31.03.2003 (Annexure P-10), whereby the petitioner has been shown to be required to pass departmental examination which had already been passed at the time of his appointment and his pay has been re-fixed. Further, seeking a writ of mandamus, directing the respondents not to withdraw the increments already granted to the petitioner.

2. On the last date of hearing i.e. 12.12.2024, learned counsel for the petitioner sought adjournment to get instructions from the petitioner. He submits that despite his best efforts, he has not been able to get instructions from the petitioner. He has also written registered letter to the petitioner which has been received back unserved.

4. In this view of the matter, the instant petition is dismissed for non-prosecution. However, liberty is granted to the petitioner to revive the same in case any cause of action still survives.
