

PAVAN KAMBOJ V/S STATE OF PUNJAB AND OTHERS

Present: Mr. Rahul Arora, Advocate for the applicant-petitioner.

Mr. Aman Dhir, DAG, Punjab.

The applicant through the instant application is seeking recalling/review of order dated 20.01.2024 whereby his claim was rejected.

The applicant is claiming that no candidate belonging to OBC in the domain in which petitioner applied has been selected. This Court has adverted this question while adjudicating a bunch of petitions including petition of the present applicant. Even otherwise, the scope of review is limited and there is no new ground as required to review an order, thus, the application deserves to be dismissed and accordingly dismissed.

As per applicant, few seats are lying vacant. The orders passed by this Court would not inhibit the respondent to consider candidates against vacant seats.
