N.S.Shekhawat J. (Oral)

1. The petitioner has filed the present petition under Section 439 Cr.PC with a prayer to grant regular bail to him in case FIR No. 370 dated 03.06.2023, registered under Sections 120-B, 342,379-B,420,427 of IPC (Sections 342 and 420 of IPC deleted subsequently), Police Station Sadar Thanesar, District Kurukshetra.
2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the Vikram Singh, complainant of the present case is a hard core criminal and one FIR No.550 dated 08.08.2023, under Section 21 of NDPS Act, Police Station Thanesar, District Kurukshetra was ordered to be registered against him and he is facing the prosecution in the said case. He further contends that the FIR has been got registered by the complainant after a delay of 04 days, which was not explained in the FIR. Even it has been alleged that an injury with a blunt weapon was caused on the head of the complainant, however, he has already been discharged from the hospital. He next contends that the petitioner was arrested in the present case on 11.01.2024 and is in custody since then. The final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C has already been presented before the Court and the conclusion of the trial may take quite a long time.

3. On the other hand, learned State counsel has vehemently opposed the prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner on the ground that the petitioner had caused injuries to the complainant and the petitioner does not deserve the concession of bail.

4. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and perused the record carefully.

5. The petitioner is continuing in custody since 11.01.2024 and the final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C has already been presented before the Court.

6. Without commenting on the merits of the case, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to his furnishing bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate/Chief Judicial Magistrate, concerned.
